

Bio Introduction for Mickey:

The Metro Water Recovery Board of Directors named Mickey CEO in January 2018. Prior to becoming CEO, Mickey served as Metro's General Counsel for four years.

Mickey has been in the wastewater sector his entire professional career, which has spanned more than 25 years. From 2002 to 2013, he was a managing partner of Johnson & Conway, LLP, a firm that specialized in representing public entities and wastewater clients in New Jersey. Before that, he worked as a senior associate attorney with the law firm of Lewis & McKenna for eight years.

Mickey is a 1994 cum laude graduate from the University of San Francisco School of Law. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in History from Southern Methodist University in 1988.

In addition to the WRF Board, he currently serves as a Board Member of the National Association of Clean Water Agencies (NACWA) representing Region 8. He is also a member of the One Water Council of the U.S. Water Alliance as well as a number of other committees and groups relating to the wastewater/water sectors.
